To Whom All It Concerns:

This letter is in reference to my 1st letter to you (dated January 1, 2000) and "respectfully request that EVERYTHING that ANYONE from and/or representing your company be in writing to myself, my Physician of Record (POR) or Attorney of Record".

On (date) at approximately (Time)EST, I received a call at my home from "Jane Doe" who was calling on behalf of your company. She got the answering machine since all calls are monitored at my home.

Also, on (date) at approximately (Time)EST, my presence was requested in the Human Resources Department and I was asked a series of questions, NONE OF WHICH WERE IN WRITING. Also, none of which I answered, but "respectfully request that EVERYTHING that ANYONE from and/or representing your company be in writing to myself, my Physician of Record (POR) or Attorney of Record (AOR)".

Now if my wishes concerning my respectful "request that EVERYTHING that ANYONE from and/or representing your company be in writing to myself, my Physician of Record (POR) or Attorney of Record (AOR)" cannot be granted, then there may be probable cause for my Attorney to investigate the issue of employer harassment, because this is my 2nd letter of request in regard to said issue.

Sincerely,
